 54.504: Applied Anthropology and the Environment: 2000 – (10)

This course is totally revamped from the previous Ecological Analysis course, which had fallen behind the times in terms of its mandate. So I renamed it and revised it to bring it in to the 21st century. It draws students from NPSIA; PAM; Anthropology; Geography, DIS, Canadian Studies.

- 54.587: Anthropology of Consciousness: 1998- 99 (15)

- Graduate Tutorials

These tutorials were mostly one on one, though a number of tutorials would have 2 or three students. Students seek me out for tutorials, perhaps because they hear about the method I use - the monthly walk and discourse in the Gatineau hills, where we become one another's mentors as each student provides a progress report on their current work.
